

Suite Madame Blue

Auteur : Styx — (sans accords)

Time after time
I sit and I wait for your call
I know I'm a fool, but what... can I say?
What-ever the price I'll pay for you
Madame Blue...

Once long ago,
a word from your lips, and the world turned a-round
But somehow you've changed, you're so far away
I long for the past and dream of the days with you
Madame Blue...

Sweet Ma-dame Blue, gaze at your look-ing glass
You're not a child an-y-more...
Sweet Madame Blue, the fu-ture is all but past
So dressed in your jew'ls, you made your own rules
You conquered the world and more,... Hea-ven's...

door Oh

America... America
America... America... : x3

Red, white and blue, gaze in your look-ing glass
You're not a child anymore...
Red, white and blue, the future is all but past, so lift up your heart, and make a new start
Lead us away from here...
