

Are You Lonesome Tonight

Auteur : Elvis Presley

{c: Intro}

A-3 D-0-2-0

[Dm] [G7] [C] [G7]

{c: Verse 1}

Are you l[C]onesome t[Em]onight, do you[Am] miss me to[Am]night?

Are you s[C]orry we d[C7]rifted apart[F]? [F]

Does your m[G]emory s[G]tray to a bri[G7]ghter summer d[G7]ay

When I ki[G7]ssed you and ca[G7]lled you sweet[C]heart?[C]

Do the c[C7]hairs in your pa[C7]rlor seem em[F]pty and ba[F]re?

Do you [D]gaze at your [D]doorstep and [Dm]picture me th[G]ere?

Is your [C]heart filled with [Em]pain, shall I[D] come back a[D]gain?

Tell me [Dm]dear, are you [G7]lonesome t[C]onigh[G7]t.

{c: Verse 2}

(Talking verses)

[C]I wonder [Em]if you are l[Am]onesome tonight

You know s[Am]omeone said that the world's a s[C]tage

And each must play a part.

[C7]Fate had me[F] playing "in love" with you as my s[F]weetheart.

Act one was where we met,[G] I loved you at first glance.

You read your [G7]line so cleverly and never missed a c[G7]ue.

Then came act two,[G7] you seemed to [G7]change, you acted stran[C]ge

And why, I've never known.

[C7] Honey, you [C7]lied when you said you loved m[F]e

And I had [F]no cause to doubt you.

[D7] But I'd rather go on hearing your lies

[Dm]Than to go on living [G]without you.

[C]Now the stage is[Em] bare and I'm standing t[D]here

[D]With emptiness all around. [Dm]

And if you won't come [G7]back to me

[C]Then they can bring the curtain down.[G7]

(sing again)

Is your [C]heart filled with [Em]pain, shall I [D]come back a[D]gain?

Tell me [Dm]dear, are you [G7]lonesome tonight. [C]